11th — grade

You're almost there, 1 grade away
You look back and start wanting to stay.
But there's no turning around
You've got to get ready to put your feet on the ground.
And so you have it, the story begins in a blink of an eye
But now where to for one who's not so shy?
Life is such a mystery, it's running very fast,
The question isn't how long does it go on, but;
How long will it last!

HOMECOMING 1980
Candidates for king & queen: Bernie B., Brian H., Jackie F., Rusty P., Roxy M., & Doug G. Brian & Jackie were chosen by grades 7-12 for king & queen. The cheerleaders planned a great week: Character & Fairytale Day, Frontier Day, Poster & Dress-down Day, Halloween Day, & Red N White Day. Also Kangaroo Court was held for those unwilling to participate! During the Pep Rally, the cheerleaders were a big hit when they did their go-bananas cheer, plus their balloon busting contest which the seniors won. (Eric and Bonnie). Lastly, Germaine looked like she was having fun smashing pie in Mr. Busche's face; he had the most money in his jar.
The Juniors float got 1st, Seniors 2nd, & 7th grade 3rd.
Cando was defeated Homecoming night by Carrington Cardinals, but Homecoming was still a pretty festive time.

King & Queen Candidates: Bernie Belzer, Brian Hendrickson, Jackie Freund, Rusty Papacheck, Roxy Miller & Doug Glennen.

SNOW DAZE

What can be more exciting than five fun-filled days topped off with a Snowball. Almost nothing. To start off this fabulous week there was Senior day, when all underclassmen had to do as the Seniors told them. Decorating the halls was also on the agenda for that day. On Tuesday, everyone dressed up as if it were the fifties. The third day all the students were to dress in white. To get back at the Seniors, Thursday was underclassmen day. There was also an exciting game of soccer on the football field. To top off the week, everyone dressed in red and white and attended a "Good Luck to the Players" pep rally. Saturday night was full of music and fun when many attended the Snowball. All festivities were led by the wonderful Snow Queen, Kathy Koshney.

An excited campaign manager.

Prom

Forty couples put on their dancing shoes to dance to the music of Daviat, the terrific band that played at the 1981 Junior-Senior Prom. Mary Mohr, escorted by Bob Vandal, Georgia Hilts escorted by Scott Knoke, and JoAnn Laturnus escorted by Dewane Heisler, were the prom queen candidates. Mary Mohr was the lucky girl chosen by the Junior and Senior classes as queen. The theme of the prom was More Than a Feeling and the colors were maroon and silver. The pictures started at eight o'clock and the Grand March began at nine. Everything to a close at mid-night, when the final song was played.
